Ebell friends,

An Ebell Rest Cottage was recently declared a new Historic-Cultural Monument in LA, done by the same architect as our Clubhouse. See the newsletter from the City on the blurb mentioning this news on page 2 if you're so inclined/interested. This sounds like something that the LA Ebell did.... interesting to learn a bit more about early women's history of the City.

I miss our lunches and all of you dear lovely friends.

Best regards, Nicole
